New York Yankees cut one more notch in their gun this morning. They beat the Athletics 3 to 2 as a happy starter for the holiday, the ERROR. Yankees winning out on the pinch hitting efforts of Ward and Babe Ruth in the last half of the eighth.

This final rally would have been innecessary but for a play by Ward savored somewhat of the bone, John-ston of Philadelphia had slapped a long hit against the right field wall for a single. When the ball was thrown into Ward he saw that the cover was cut and deliberately threw the ball out of the game without consulting the umpire. During this odd re Johnston ran around to Despite protests he was allowed to score on C. Walker's sacrifice fly to the outfield. This gave the enemy quite a thrill. Robby Satisfied With Work of Johnston at Second and Olson at Short.

By Joseph Gordon.

ANAGER ROBINSON and the Lansing struck out. Powell singled Dodger board of strategy have at the short field appears to so much better advantage than anywhere els mind to experiment no further.

High's fielding at third is still a little shaky, but that is believed to be due to stage fright more . anything else. His recent removal from short and his brief stay on the bench has done anything but increase his confidence. He is a very young player yet. All he needs is a chance to make good. His hitting is a valuable asset to the team and his fielding will improve with time and experience. What the Robins really should do now is to look up a good lawyer somewhere and find out just what legal placed by McQuillan. High walked steps they can take against the Boston Braves. While the Brooklya team was in the West reports have fly scored Ruether, but High was been reaching them daily that Mr. ly known in baseball circles as a lead and when Ford dropped Gowdy's pipe cinch, and all that was needed to win games from them was to enston, Wheat took second on a wild gage them in combat. The Robins pitch by McQuillan. Myers singled, needed a few games to make up for osses in the West. They invited the Braves to Ebbets Field for the week-

But instead of being the timid and locile youngsters they had been described, they turned on their hosts with an ill-mannered rerociousness and not only showed fight but actually licked the Robins two days running. And all this in direct conradiction to their unuttered avowais that they were weak. It is a clear case of misrepresentation and thing ought to be done by the Brooklyn management. Yesterday's score

Leon Cadore was the latest victim of the seventh place Braves. The Lieutenant's offerings were pounded 3. Griffith. Holke flied to Wheat.
